

RETIREMENT PLAN DISTRIBUTIONS TO TRUSTS:
HOW TO MAKE THEM WORK

Table of Contents

I. Naming a Trust and Its Beneficiaries as the Beneficiary of a Retirement Plan	1
A. General Rules.....	1
1. Income in Respect of a Decedent Considerations.....	1
2. Individuals as Designated Beneficiaries	3
3. Trusts as Designated Beneficiaries	3
4. When Trust Beneficiaries May Be Treated as Designated Beneficiaries	3
5. Testamentary Trusts and Living Trusts	5
B. How To Determine Which Trust Beneficiary’s Life Expectancy to Use	6
1. Trusts with Multiple Beneficiaries.....	6
2. General Rule: Look to the Oldest Beneficiary.....	6
3. No Designated Beneficiary	6
4. Contingent Beneficiaries.....	7
5. Use a Disclaimer to Address Contingent Beneficiaries.....	8
6. Address the Passage of Trust Property by Operation of Law.....	8
7. Accumulation Trust Concerns	9
8. IRS View: Payments Through Trusts to Subtrusts Do Not Recognize the Separate Subtrust Beneficiaries	11
9. A Suggested Solution to the Separate Share Problem	13
10. Other Suggested Solutions to Address the IRS Position	16
11. Drafting the Beneficiary Designation Language	18
II. Using Retirement Plan Trusts in Estate Planning Situations	19
A. Designations: Trusts vs. Outright.....	19
B. Trusts May Be a Planning Necessity.....	19
1. Protection for Minors, Spendthrifts, Incapacitated Persons.....	19
2. “Stretch-Out” Benefits to Young Persons.....	20
3. Estate Planning: Fund the Credit Shelter	20
4. Other Disclaimer Issues	22
5. Drafting Suggestion: Sample Disclaimer Provision	24
C. Funding the Credit Shelter Portion of the Estate Plan	25
1. Outright Designation to Spouse is Preferred	25
2. Income Tax vs. Estate Tax Planning.....	25
3. A Large Retirement Plan May Dominate the Estate.....	25
4. Outright Payment to Spouse May Not Be Desired	26
5. Suggestion: Have It All with the “Poorer Spouse Funding Technique”.....	26
III. How to Address QTIP Trust Planning with Retirement Plan Assets.....	31
1. Outright to Spouse Does Not Always Work.....	31
2. Consider the QTIP Trust Alternative.....	31
3. The QTIP Trust Is an Eligible Plan Beneficiary	32

4. Required Formalities for QTIP Use	33
5. Rev. Rul. 2006-26	34
6. Changes Required by Rev. Rul. 2006-26.....	35
7. Effective Date of Rev. Rul. 2006-26	36
8. Drafting Suggestion: QTIP TRUST – PLAN BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION LANGUAGE	36
 IV. Spouses Can Get a Special IRA Rollover Break	 38
 V. Planning Opportunity for a Spouse as the Beneficiary of Marital and Non-Marital Shares	 39
 VI. The 2006 Pension Protection Act Allows Qualified Plan Accounts to be Transferred to Inherited IRAs for Non-Spouse Beneficiaries	 40
 VII. Some General Drafting Suggestions When Plan Benefits Are Left to Trusts.....	 46
1. Income Payments	46
2. Not the Minimum Distribution Requirements	46
3. Address the Identification of Beneficiaries.....	46
4. Prohibit Non-Individual Beneficiaries.....	47
5. Address the Rule Against Perpetuities.....	47
6. Address Issues Involving Income, Principal and Total Return Distinctions	47
7. Address Using the Plan Benefits to Pay Taxes, Debts and Expenses.....	48
 VIII. Planning Concern: Law by Private Letter Ruling.....	 49