

Asset Protection: An Explanation For The Nonexpert

May 14, 2008

Table of Contents

I. INTRODUCTION	1
A. Litigation Environment Creates Greater Exposure to Risk of Loss.....	1
B. Traditional Forms of Protection Have Become Inadequate	1
C. Candidates for Asset Protection Planning	1
D. Asset Protection Concepts Are Not New	1
E. Asset Protection Is Part Of An Overall Wealth Preservation Process.....	1
II. FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE ISSUES	2
III. SUMMARY OF THE PROVISIONS OF THE 2005 BANKRUPTCY ACT AFFECTING THE WEALTHY	2
A. Homestead Exemption	2
B. Retirement Plan Assets.....	3
C. Fraudulent Transfers and Transfers To Self-Settled Trusts	4
IV. TRADITIONAL FORMS OF ASSET PROTECTION	5
A. Transfers To Spouse – “Poor man’s” Asset Protection	5
B. Corporate Ownership	5
C. Family Limited Partnerships	5
D. Limited Liability Company.....	5
E. Joint Ownership Of Property	5
F. Exemption Planning.....	5
V. DOMESTIC TRUSTS IN GENERAL	5
VI. DOMESTIC ASSET PROTECTION TRUSTS	7
VII. FOREIGN SITUS TRUSTS.....	19
VIII. EFFECTIVENESS OF AND CHALLENGES TO OFFSHORE TRUSTS	29
IX. NEW TRENDS IN ASSET PROTECTION WITH AN EMPHASIS ON ESTATE PLANNING	38

APPENDIX:

Article: Asset Protection Planning- Current Strategies and PitfallsII-1
Published in Tax Management Estates Gifts and Trusts Journal (9/05)

ASSET PROTECTION AUDIT CHECKLIST III-1

Please note: Some of the page numbers Mr. Rothschild refers to in his lecture appear differently in the course manual.

- His reference to the Nastro v. D’Onofrio case on page 34 appears in the course on page 33.
- His reference to an example of estate tax savings is found in the course manual on page 45.