

CRITICAL ESTATE PLANNING DECISIONS:
2010, 2011 AND BEYOND

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I: 2010 PLANNING: THE UNTHINKABLE HAPPENED.....	1
A. Assuming No Changes, What Is The Law in 2010?	1
B. Assuming No Changes, What Will The Law Be in 2011?	2
C. What Are the Possible Outcomes in 2010 That Will Affect Tax Planning?	3
D. Concerns in 2010 with Formula Clauses in Wills and Trusts.....	3
E. Planning in 2010 to Address Formulas, Spouses and Children	4
F. Planning in 2010 if There Is No Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax	5
G. Planning for Carryover Basis	6
H. Planning for Gifting Issues	7
I. Planning for States with Independent Death Taxes.....	8
PART II: PLANNING CHECKLIST IF REPEAL STANDS	9
PART III: PLANNING FOR A REINSTATED FEDERAL ESTATE TAX.....	11
A. Dividing and Allocating Assets to Utilize the Federal Estate Tax Exemption	11
B. A Flexible Planning Suggestion: The Disclaimer Trust Solution	12
C. Another Flexible Planning Suggestion: The Contingent QTIP Trust Solution	13
D. Another Flexible Suggestion: The Joint Revocable Trust Solution	13
E. What to Do if The Spouse with the Smaller Estate Dies First – The “Poorer Spouse Funding Technique”	14
PART IV: PLANNING TECHNIQUES TO REDUCE THE SIZE OF AN ESTATE	14
A. Beyond Basic Gifting	14
B. Planning in The “Perfect Storm” – Low Values, Low Interest Rates, Change Coming	14
PART V: PROPOSED CHANGES IN THE LAW	20
I. The Treasury “Green Book” of Estate and Gift Tax Proposals	20
A. Consistent Estate and Gift Tax Valuations	20
B. Modifying Valuation Discounts	21
C. Minimum Ten-Year Term for GRATs	21
II. Other Legislative Proposals	22
PART VI: NEW LAWS ENACTED AS PART OF THE HEALTH CARE REFORM – EFFECT ON FUTURE TAX AND ESTATE PLANNING	23
A. Increased Medicare Tax on High Income Earners	23
B. Expansion of Medicare Tax to Passive Income	23