

Planning For The New Medicare Taxes

Table of Contents

Introduction	1
A. Increased Medicare Tax on High Income Earners – The “Additional Medicare Tax”	2
B. Expansion of Medicare Tax to Net Investment Income	3
1. Introduction – Overview – Taxation of Individuals	3
2. Application of the Medicare Tax on Investment Income of Trusts and Estates	9
C. Understanding the Modified Adjusted Gross Income Requirement	10
1. The Definition of MAGI.....	10
2. Important Exclusions from MAGI.....	11
D. Understand the Applicable Threshold Amounts	11
E. Issues Likely to Be Disputed – The Passive vs. Active Income Issues	13
1. Active vs. Passive Business Activities – Individuals.....	13
2. Active vs. Passive Business Activities – Trusts and Estates	17
F. Planning Considerations for the Medicare Taxes on Earnings and Investment Income	18
1. General Planning Strategies	18
2. Strategies to Reduce MAGI.....	18
G. Suggested MAGI and Net Investment Income Reduction Planning for 2013 and Beyond	18
H. “Larger” Planning Strategies to Reduce Net Investment Income	20
1. Is the S Corporation Best Suited for Medicare Tax Planning?.....	20
2. Try to reduce or eliminate net investment income by converting passive to active activities	24
3. Where possible, use the grouping election to make satisfying the material Participation tests more likely.....	24
4. Special Concerns Arise in Connection with Rental Activities	25
I. Planning Considerations and Strategies for Trusts and Estates	28
1. Distribute income.....	28
2. Choose a fiscal year that ends November 30, 2012	29
3. If applicable, make a Section 645 election for a Qualified Revocable Trust	29
4. Consider use of the Code Section 663(b) election – the so-called 65 day rule	29
5. Consider making a Section 643(e) election	30
6. Address similar investment strategies suggested above for individuals.....	30
7. Take advantage of the “discretionary allocation of expenses rule” of Reg. 1.652(b)-3(b)	30